WHEREAS, The Women's Conference of the National Safety Council represents some sixty members at large and sixty-one national and international women's organizations with an outreach to fifty-five million women; and,

WHEREAS, The Women's Conference has recognized the need for, and initiated a National Crusade to have Safety on the Streets (S.O.S.); and,

WHEREAS, The Safety on the Streets Crusade represents an action-oriented program for volunteers nationwide, who marshal the human resources of their communities and public service, civic, fraternal, and law enforcement agencies to have safe neighborhoods; and,

WHEREAS, Program aspects of S.O.S. include automobile, bicycle, pedestrian, personal, and school safety, with public support being urged for alcohol and drug counter-measures, improved streetlighting, and national highway safety standards:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARVEY WOLLMAN, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 29, through November 4, 1978, as in South Dakota in recognition of the outstanding contribution to this State and to other communities throughout the nation of volunteer womanpower, united to have Safety on the Streets.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Tenth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Eight

HARVEY WOLLMAN, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

LORNA B. HERSETH, SECRETARY OF STATE
